Following on Executive Orders from the governor, Alabama Legislative Act Number 1126 was adopted on September 13, 1969, authorizing the legal organization of groups of Alabama counties into regional planning and development districts. The South Central Alabama Development Commission (SCADC) is now one of twelve regional planning and development commissions in Alabama. The South Central Alabama Development Commission was incorporated as a non-profit organization in June 1969, and was originally called the Central Alabama Economic Development District.

The agency was also designated as an Economic Development District (EDD) by the U.S. Department of Commerce, Economic Development Administration (EDA) in November 1970.

The EDD office is located in Montgomery. In April 1971, the Governor designated the Central Alabama Economic Development District as the Regional Planning and Development Commission for State Planning and Development Region No.

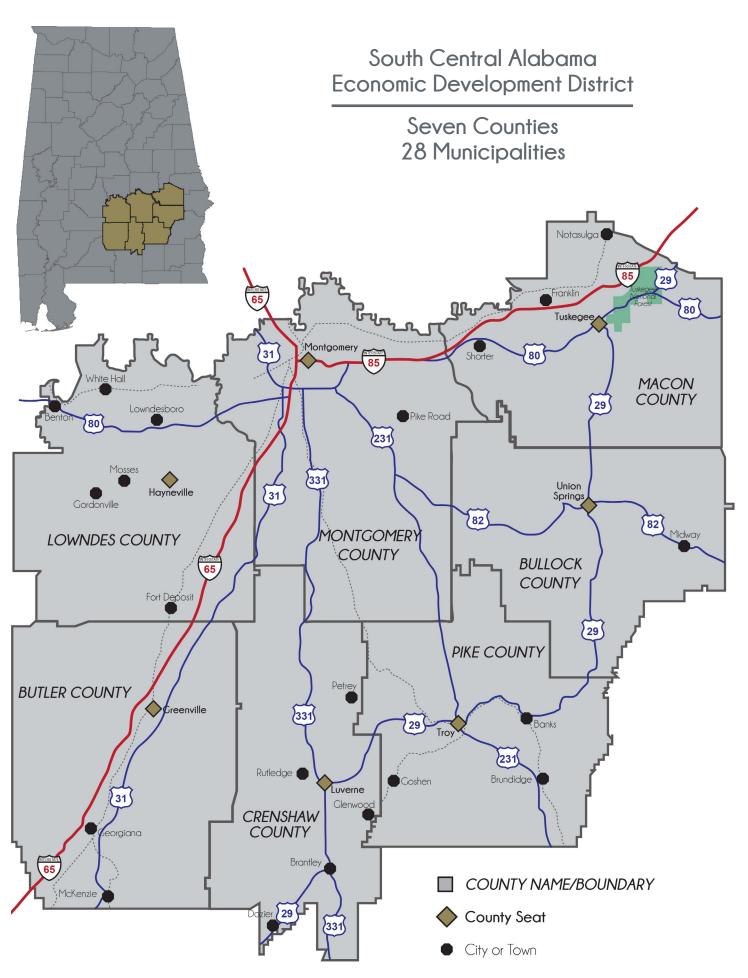

5. In May 1971, it was also designated the Area Wide Clearinghouse for the same geographic region. At that time the name was changed to the South Central Alabama Development Commission.

Jurisdiction and Purpose

The South Central Alabama
Economic Development
District (SCAEDD) includes
seven counties: Bullock,
Butler, Crenshaw, Lowndes,
Macon, Montgomery, and Pike Counties. Only Montgomery County is not located in the regional jurisdiction of the South Central Alabama Development Commission.

Montgomery County, along with Autauga and Elmore Counties comprise the Central Alabama Regional Planning and Development Commission. The seven counties in the South Central EDD are designated as redevelopment areas by EDA. Currently, there are 28 incorporated municipalities in the district. Montgomery serves as the major growth center, with Greenville and Troy as secondary growth centers. All member governments have the opportunity to participate in the CEDS process.

Planning for physical, economic and social development within the EDD region is more important than ever given today's economy and the continued needs of rural areas, especially those that are economically depressed, as well as in growing parts of the region that are experiencing unprecedented opportunities for development. The forming of multi-county initiatives is critical for well-planned development and redevelopment of the area economy. Development projects that cannot be accomplished on a single county basis become possible through the joint efforts of several counties and impact the entire region.

The purpose of the CEDS is to provide an overview of the region's economy and to outline a development strategy, as well as associated projects, that will increase the overall economy and quality of life in the region.

The 2018 CEDS was prepared as a continuing step toward successful economic improvement for the South Central Alabama region. The planning and development program in South Central Alabama results from public and private organizations and individuals in the seven county area joining together in a combined effort to facilitate economic development regionwide. This combined effort is guided by the South Central Alabama Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy, or CEDS, which is developed and annually updated by the SCADC.

This 2021 Annual Report is one opportunity to review, evaluate and update the projects identified in the 2018 CEDS. The South Central Alabama CEDS is also coordinated with statewide plans for economic development and is, therefore, consistent with statewide plans and policies.

The counties within the region have elected to have the district CEDS document serve their planning needs and designation obligations. A copy of the resolution adopting the 2018 South Central Alabama CEDS is included in Appendix A, along with a copy of the resolution adopting the 2021 CEDS Annual Report.

CEDS Requirements

The CEDS planning process and resulting document must meet the federal requirements set forth in Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations (13CFR) Sections 303.6 and 303.7. Together, these sections outline the CEDS planning process, public involvement and data and information to be included in the final document. Section 303.7 states that CEDS are designed to bring together the public and private sectors in the creation of an economic road map to diversify and strengthen regional economies. The CEDS should analyze the regional economy and serve as a guide for establishing regional goals and objectives, developing and implementing a regional plan of action, and identifying investment priorities and funding sources. Public and private sector partnerships are critical to the implementation of the integral elements of a CEDS. As a performancebased plan, the CEDS serves a critical role in a region's efforts to defend against economic dislocations due to global trade, competition and other events resulting in the loss of jobs

Step 1: Inventory
Take stock of existing resources and conditions to clarify who, what and where we are.

Step 2: Analysis
Review inventory and current trends to outline the region's strengths and weaknesses, and opportunities and barriers, (SWOT analysis). Determine what works and what doesn't.

Step 3: Define Issues
Using inventory and SWOT analysis, clearly define specific issues to be addressed so that forward progress can be made.

Step 4: Establish Vision
Develop a long-range statement to serve as a beacon, or guide, for all strategies and actions.

Step 5: Develop Strategy
Establish goals and objectives that are consistent with the overall vision, and that address the defined issues.

Step 6: Outline Action Plan Outline the steps necessary to accomplish each goal and objective. Review action plan to create of hot list of priority actions; then, assign costs, time frame and responsible parties.

Step 7: Implementation Take Action through careful and coordinated efforts to accomplish the action plan.

Step 8: Review and Adjust Review plan on an annual basis to check off action items, evaluate results, and adjust future actions, as necessary. and private investment. To this end, a successful CEDS document must include, at a minimum, four integral parts: (1) a summary economic background, (2) an analysis of the region's strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and constraints, also known as a SWOT analysis; (3) a strategic direction or action plan; and (4) a framework for evaluating performance. Additionally, in recent years, more emphasis is being placed on creating a user-friendly document that is both aesthetically appealing and meaningful, as opposed to the more technical, list-type documents that have been developed in the past.

The South Central Alabama Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy fully meets the requirements of 13CFR Sections 303.6 and 303.7. Every effort has been made to create a concise document that encourages participation by the region's economic partners and stakeholders. The bulk of the document is less than 60 pages and is organized into four chapters to provide an introduction, a summary of the region's economic characteristics, discussion of economic trends and a SWOT analysis, and an action plan. Perhaps, the most notable change from previous CEDS documents is that the action plan is all-inclusive in that it is organized by the region's six economic goals. The action plan is found in Chapter 4: Strategic Direction of the 2018 CEDS.

Under each goal, the Strategic Direction incorporates the following:

- (1) Economic Goal,
- (2) Objectives,
- (3) SCAEDD Work Program,
- (4) Action Items; and
- (5) Performance Measures.

Using this methodology, it is possible to better focus on specific tasks that are clearly related to a regional goal that supports the South Central Alabama Economic Vision:

Create a region
with a viable, selfsustaining economy capable of supporting the highest possible quality of life for every current and future resident.

Each goal is also illustrated with past or ongoing projects and programs that are building and strengthening the capacity of the region to remain as a sustainable economic engine in Alabama.

The Strategic Direction chapter also includes performance measures for each of the projects and programs listed. Again, this evaluation framework is organized by the six economic goals in a pyramid fashion. Under each goal, actions are divided in those that will have a regional impact and those that are more local to one or two governmental entities. Finally, the strategic direction concludes with a priority list of capital improvement projects.

It is expected that the new format of the Strategic Direction portion of the South Central CEDS will result in more scrutiny and review in the coming year by the CEDS committee which can be addressed in the annual update. Using the strategic planning process, the CEDS committee has the opportunity each year to review the plan, and delete or add to the list of projects and programs included in the action plan.

Investment & Development Trends

The total land area of the South Central Alabama Economic Development District is 4,808 square miles, which is 9.5 percent of the area of the State of Alabama. By comparison with other areas, the district is over four times larger than Rhode Island, twice as large as Delaware, and almost nine times the size of the District of Columbia. There are a total of 28 incorporated municipalities located throughout the district. There is one major urban center, Montgomery, and four other municipalities with a population greater than 5,000 within the seven county region: Greenville, Pike Road, Troy, and Tuskegee. Most of the commercial and industrial development is located in or near these incorporated areas. A significant portion of the region's population, however, lives outside the incorporated areas in small, unincorporated, rural communities or on dispersed rural home sites.

The economic setting of the South Central Alabama EDD has changed drastically over the last 75 years. After World War II, rapid mechanization and changing agricultural practices resulted in severe unemployment, underemployment, low personal incomes, and out-migration throughout the South Central Alabama district during the 1950s and 1960s. With the decline of agriculture as the economic base of the area, many people were left unemployed, uneducated and untrained for other types of employment. Therefore, an economic vacuum developed with high unemployment, fewer job opportunities, and little incentive for new industry to locate in the more rural areas of the district because of inadequate community facilities and an untrained, uneducated labor force. The resulting out-migration of the most educated and productive workers and the lower education levels of the remainder of the population resulted in low tax bases and declining community services for many years.

Although the region still struggles with low income levels and high unemployment, SCADC has been able to assist its member governments in developing programs to alleviate these problems. Success has been substantial. The location and expansion of numerous industries has created thousands of new industrial jobs. This review of economic conditions of the SCAEDD provides a realistic basis for improvements to determine how to best position the South Central Alabama district for future growth and development.

Regional Investment

In the 9-year period from 2012 through September 2021, the South Central Alabama EDD participated in 202 projects with more than $158.3 million invested in the district. During the past fiscal year, regional investment in the South Central Alabama EDD decreased by 41.8 percent from $13,344,205 in FY20 to $7,765,987 in FY21 as the impact of COVID-19 fully descended upon the region. Even so, the SCAEDD assisted local governments with initiating 33 new community and economic development projects.

One of the most significant investments in the past year is the creation of a $2 million revolving loan fund (RLF) with $1.6 million from EDA and a $400,000 match from SCADC. The revolving loan fund will primarily service local businesses in Montgomery County that are not able to be served by the existing SCADC RLF. In particular, the new RLF will target the recovery, location or expansion of businesses located in one of Montgomery County's 12 Opportunity Zones.

SCAEDD assistance in Montgomery County is limited to only EDA projects which skews the total investment assistance to some degree. Additionally, the City of Montgomery is an entitlement city that receives a direct allocation of Community Development Block Grant funds. Of the rural counties of the district that are more dependent upon the SCAEDD staff to assist with project development and funding, Lowndes County saw the greatest increase in total investment, at 169.8

percent, from $$367,335 in 2020 to $990,941 in 2020. There were two sizable community development projects in the county: a sewer lift station improvement project in Hayneville; and a water system improvement project in Lowndesboro. Additionally, Lowndes County was awarded CDBG-CV funds to improve access to a COVID testing and vaccination facility and to purchase public safety software.

Six new projects have started in Crenshaw County totaling $1,246,000 in investment. Projects include street and water improvements in Crenshaw County, sewer improvements and a land use plan with development regulations in Brantley, and a water improvement and fire protection project in Dozier.

Bullock County realized a 79.7 percent increase in investment to $708,763 in FY21. Union Springs was awarded funds water, sewer and drainage improvements and Bullock County will receive COVID-related funds to renovate the county emergency management agency and to improve sidewalk access to the medical clinic.

Macon County has four new projects with a combined investment of $348,000.

Macon County will utilize CDBG COVID funds to provide assistance with food distribution, rent and utility assistance, small business grants, and equipment.

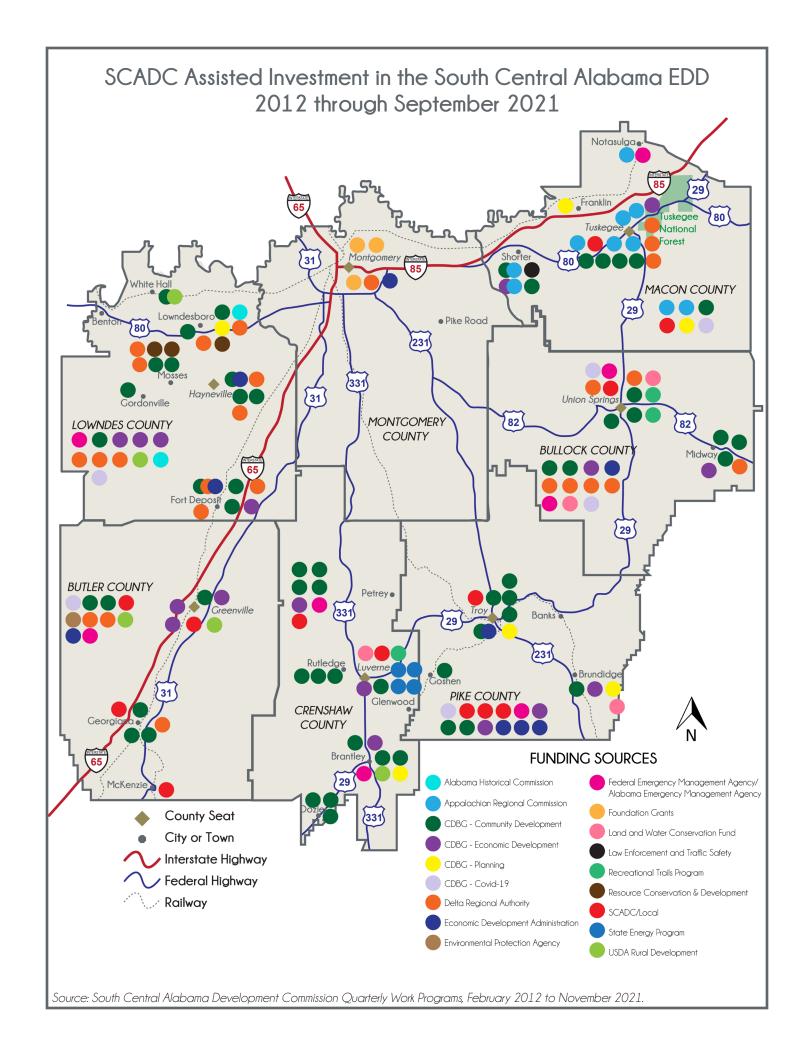

Additionally, the Town of Franklin has started a land use plan along with their first development regulations in a effort to promote development at Interstate 85 Exit 28.

SCAEDD has assisted local governments in Pike County with the development and start of six new projects that include a $617,588 street improvement project and the purchase of two COVID-equipped ambulances at $400,000 by Pike County; and a $1.04 million community center renovation by the City of Troy.

Butler County is using $300,000 in CDBG COVID funds to make improvements to the county emergency management building, purchase equipment for the Butler County volunteer fire departments and the healthcare authority, and to assist with food distribution.

Opportunity Zones in SCAEDD

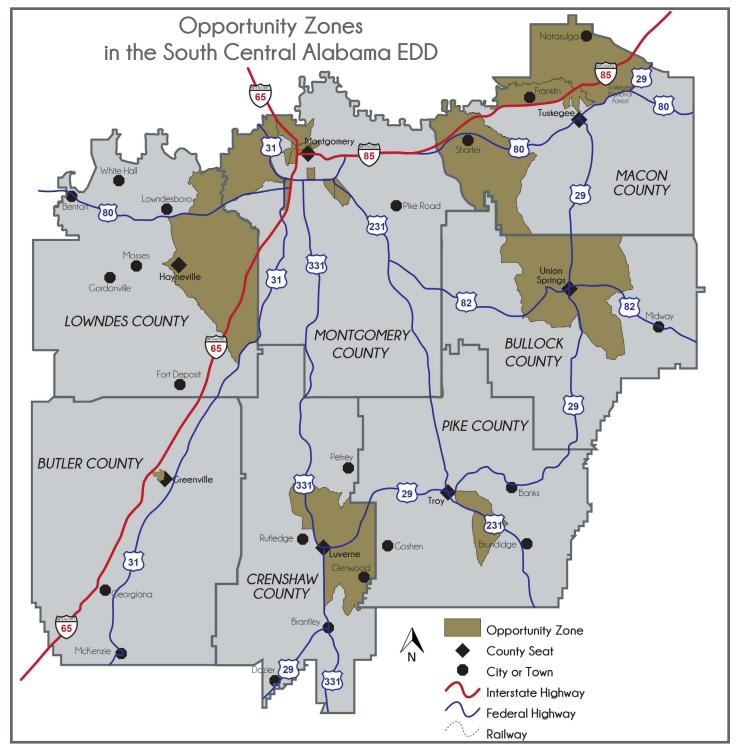

The Opportunity Zones program was established by the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 to foster private investment in low-income areas. The program provides a federal tax incentive for investors to put their unrealized capital gains into opportunity funds dedicated for investing in the designated opportunity zones.

To qualify as an opportunity zone, a census tract must be low-income with a poverty rate of at least 20 percent and a median family income of less than 80 percent of the state or area median income. There are 20 opportunity zones in the seven county South Central Alabama Economic Development District: 12 in Montgomery County, three in Macon County, and one each in Bullock, Butler, Crenshaw, Lowndes, and Pike Counties.

Central Alabama, especially in the district's rural areas where attracting outside investment becomes a hardship and a barrier to economic development. According to the Alabama Opportunity Zones website, the district's opportunity zones offer a labor force of 28,239 persons, of which an average of 6.2 percent of the labor force is unemployed. There are 3,924 existing businesses in the combined 477,000-acre area.

The most recent data from StatsAmerica.com reports that the combined population of the 20 opportunity zones is 64,909 persons with a labor force of 27,066 workers, of which 9.0 percent are unemployed.

The opportunity zone with the largest land area is located in Lowndes County with 100,544 acres. The smallest four zones are located in Montgomery County's urban area, ranging from 418 to 517 acres in size. The greatest concentration of workers is found in the smallest opportunity zone, at 4.03 workers per acre in Montgomery County CT 5 which is downtown Montgomery. Unemployment is highest in Montgomery's urban areas at 28.1 percent in CT 10, 25.5 percent in CT 6, and 25.3 percent in CT 1. When combined, the three census tracts are home to 27.7 percent of the total businesses in all of the opportunity zones. In the rural part of the region, unemployment is highest in Lowndes County CT 7808, at 7.9 percent of 1,226 workers and, in Pike County CT 1891, at 7.4 percent of 3,152 workers.

OZ Development

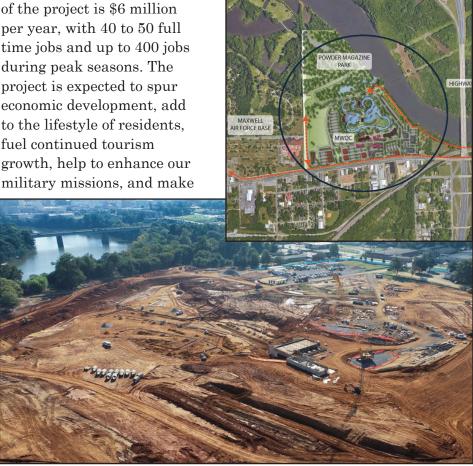

The Montgomery County / City of Montgomery partnership project to construct the Montgomery Whitewater Park (also known as Project Catalyst) continues to be the only significant economic development activity within an opportunity zone in the South Central Alabama EDD. The $50 million whitewater park and outdoor fun center is located in west Montgomery with visibility from Interstate 65. Local officials expect the project to redefine the area as a destination and will provide a bridge between Maxwell Air Force Base and Downtown Montgomery.

Construction is well underway on the 120-acre site that will feature a climbing tower, zip lines, mountain biking, and rope courses, and a 25-acre central park that will host rafting and kayaking along a man-made whitewater course that weaves through restaurants, shops, a beer garden, an outdoor concert venue, and a hotel and conference center. The whitewater course will accommodate approximately 2,000 float patrons per day and estimated attendance is 300,000 visitors annually.

The estimated impact of the project is $6 million per year, with 40 to 50 full time jobs and up to 400 jobs during peak seasons. The project is expected to spur economic development, add to the lifestyle of residents, fuel continued tourism growth, help to enhance our Montgomery a more attractive destination for a talented workforce that prioritizes quality of life when selecting a place to live and work.

As the designated Economic Development District for the South Central Alabama Region, the South Central Alabama Development Commission (SCADC) is committed to the ongoing implementation of the 2018 Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS). SCADC continues to participate in the coordination and implementation of regional, statewide and federal initiatives, including the Economic Development Administration, Delta Regional Authority, Appalachian Regional Commission, Rural Transportation Planning Organization, workforce development and others.

The CEDS Strategy Committee was reorganized in 2018 to increase private sector participation and, possibly, form action teams for the further implementation of regional priorities. The Strategic Direction chapter of the 2018 CEDS outlined the district's vision and goals. Each goal is accompanied with related objectives, identification of related projects that will have a regional impact, and a work program of action items specifically related to the goal. The action plan includes a priority list of capital improvement projects.

This strategy evaluation reviews the 2018 CEDS vision goals, performance measures and identifies projects that have been completed or are underway to implement those goals. The performance and implementation lists are accompanied by project highlights on noteworthy developments. The full list of CEDS goals, objectives, work program, and projects, as well as the list of priority capital improvement project are available in Appendix B.

Performance Measures

SCADC includes performance measures as part of the CEDS planning process, with respect to specific project performance as well as individual investment and grant results, including:

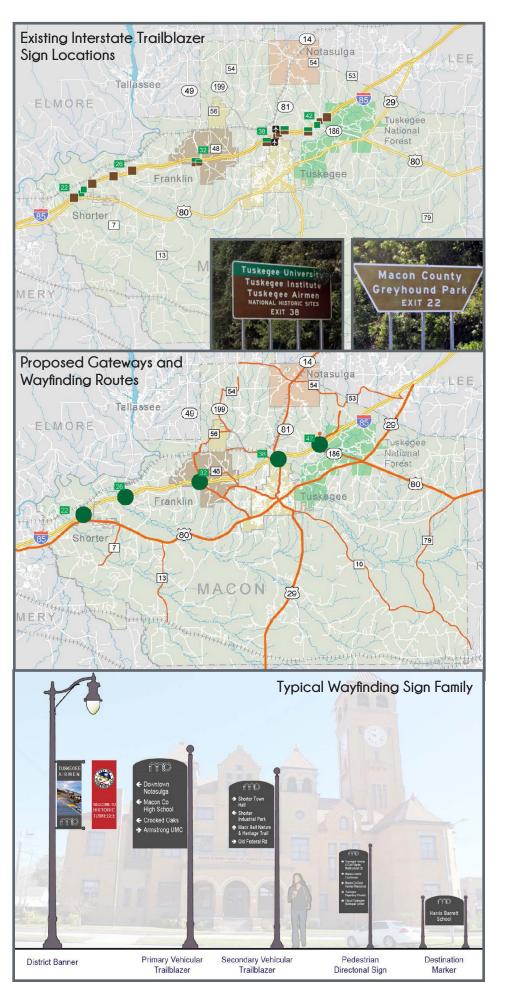

- · Jobs Gained and Retained:
- Number and Types of Investments:
- Amount of Public and Private Investment;
- · Changes in Demographics;
- Changes in Economic Development Environment; and
- Changes in Quality of Life.

SCADC will continuously improve performance and implementation to include quantifiable measures per EDA and other standards; regular progress towards objectives; and consideration of action teams to share project implementation and leverage resources.

Through the South Central Alabama Rural Transportation Planning Organization (RPO) Program, SCADC was able to provide funds that addressed a transportation issue and an economic development need. The Macon County Economic Development Authority (MCEDA) has wanted to resolve circulation and wayfinding around Macon County for the last ten years and have included the strategy in their economic development strategic plan since 2011. RPO funds were available in FY21 for Phase 1 of the Macon County Wayfinding Study that included the following:

- Inventory of destinations
- Analysis of existing signage
- Identification of potential wayfinding routes
- Strategic recommendations for a countywide wayfinding system
- Criteria for prioritizing destinations for inclusion on wayfinding signs

A wayfinding signage system helps visitors find their way to their intended destinations and—when done well—project a positive impression of the city, county or district, lending a sense of coordination and community pride. Wayfinding systems alert visitors to other places of interest that might not already be on their itinerary, helping market all that a locality has to offer. Wayfinding signs also direct visitors to parking, lodging, shopping and other services, facilitating travel and boosting tourism-based economic opportunities. Phase 2 of the wayfinding project is slated for FY22 and MCEDA has begun allocating funds for implementation.

Beyond industry and manufacturing, local governments in the South Central Alabama district are also building their service and retail markets. The City of Luverne, in Crenshaw County, recently welcomed Jack's Family Restaurant which brought approximately 40 new jobs.

Macon County has continued to focus economic development efforts on development of the Interstate 85 corridor, with five interstate interchanges all of which are either undeveloped or under-developed due to a lack of adequate infrastructure. With improvements in place, Macon County has focused their efforts on capturing interstate traffic to develop the land surrounding the interchanges while also providing residents with retail options in restaurants and shopping.

In Butler County, the South Central Alabama Mental Health (SCAMH) used USDA funds to build a forensic mental health facility in Greenville. The project is a 16-bed secure facility that will provide mental health services known as competency restoration treatment for those persons involved in the criminal justice system.

SCADC has assisted local governments in securing funds to make infrastructure improvements for the location of new industries and for expansion and upgrades to community development facilities. Currently, the staff of the SCADC is providing administration services for 35 infrastructure and community development projects with a combined investment value of approximately $17.8 million.

Of those 37 projects, 12 projects were initiated in FY21 with a combined investment value of $5,206,706.

Five of the 12 community development projects started in the past year were related to the recovery and response to COVID-19 and other pandemic situations. These projects were funded through the CDBG-CV program. The remaining seven projects were all community development related with improvements to existing water systems, sanitary sewer systems, and road improvements. The City of Troy, however, has undertaken a large project to renovate an historical school building for use as a community center.

GOAL 3 EDUCATION AND WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

- Crenshaw County Career
 Tech and LBW, Luverne

- Workforce Development Councils
- County Economic Development Strategic Plans

Each of the seven counties in the South Central Alabama Economic Development District has some form of workforce development program. The program may be as basic as the local career-tech program at the high school level. Or, it may include secondary education institutions and non-profit agencies. Alabama's Community College System plays a vital role in career training and workforce development. There are two community college systems within the district: Trenholm State Community College located in Montgomery, and Lurleen

B. Wallace (LBW) Community College with a campus in Greenville and a center in Luverne. The community college system offers adult education, ready to work programs, training for business and industry classes, continuing education classes, and university transfer courses.

The impact of the coronavirus pandemic has had a drastic impact on workforce development and unemployment. Rising unemployment as businesses closed on either a temporary or permanent basis or workforces were reduced presented increased challenges in training and/or obtaining a job. Additionally, the entire landscape of how work is performed was altered due to the pandemic as more and more companies began working remotely and meetings and conferences were conducted virtually. The increased use of technology is bringing another factor for consideration in future workforce development efforts. As work has progressed on the seven ongoing economic development strategic plans, each county has identified workforce development and/or hospitality training as a priority issue equally as important as economic recruitment.

Employers are facing new challenges of finding people to work and then face training issues.

GOAL 4 PLANNING AND ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP

Balance and manage community and economic development with conservation in an orderly and efficient manner.

OBJECTIVES

- Land Use
- Natural Resources
- Planning

Performance & Implementation

- Rural Transportation

- Town of Franklin Land Use Plan with a Retail Market Analysis, and Development Regulations
- EDA CARES Act County Economic Strategic Plans
- Troy Tourism Plan
- Regional Communications Network Plan

SCADC continues to work with local governments to develop long-range growth and development plans that preserve what is important to each city or town while positioning the localities for economic growth that is both feasible and appropriate for the area. In FY21, the Town of Brantley and the Town of Franklin have both undertaken land-use plans that are based on findings from a retail market analysis and a transportation framework. Once the land use plans and development strategies are complete, both towns will develop local land use control ordinances that complement and support the land use plans.

SCADC is also working with each of the seven counties in the SCAEDD to formulate economic development strategic plans that further their immediate goals as they recover from pandemic conditions. For some counties, this means addressing supply chain issues while other communities are more concerned with workforce development and the changing workplace and workforce landscape.

The City of Troy has taken an additional step in pandemic recovery and is in the process of developing a tourism plan that will bring a strong universitybased population back to the city and encourage additional visitation, even in pandemic conditions.

Each of these communities is finding meaningful progress in planning their future paths.

Brantley and Franklin have identified many features that are unique to their communities.

GOAL 5 QUALITY OF LIFE

Improve the existing quality of life in the South Central Alabama Region to meet the needs of all of its citizens.

OBJECTIVES

- · Health, Safety and Welfare
- Cultural Assets and Aesthetics
- Housing

SCADC assists local governments in their search for funds for a variety of community improvements that directly affect local quality of life, including housing demolition, purchase of emergency response vehicles, senior centers, and recreational facilities. Currently, SCADC is administering nine quality of life related projects with a combined investment value of $2.7 million. Further in the last two years, SCADC has file nine applications for recreational improvements totaling $3.3 million. Due to complications of the coronavirus, funding responses have been delayed or some of the nine application projects would already be underway. As evidenced by the number of applications, the need for quality recreational facilities has increased significantly as the coronavirus pandemic has driven people outside their homes in search of a safe location to enjoy quality time.

GOAL 6 ECONOMIC LEADERSHIP AND FUNDING

Obtain and utilize all financial, organizational and leadership resources to benefit the entire region.

OBJECTIVES

- Organizational Structure
- Leadership Development
- Funding

Performance & Implementation

- SCADC Revolving Loan Fund
- EDA Revolving Loan Fund
- SCADC Technical Assistance
- SCADC Program Administration
- CDBG Fund Applications
- Appalachian Regional Commission Applications
- Delta Regional Authority Applications
- USDA Applications
- FEMA HMGP Applications

During the 2020-2021 fiscal year, the SCADC assisted local governments in applying for funds through a variety of state and federal grant programs. In total, SCADC filed approximately 25 applications worth approximately $8.66 million in funding. Additionally, SCADC is providing administration services for approximately 49 ongoing projects with a combined investment value of $19.8 million.

The highlight of funding opportunities came in September 2021 when the Economic Development Administration announced that they were awarding a $1.6 million grant to the South Central Alabama Development Commission to capitalize and administer a Revolving Loan Fund (RLF) that will provide gap financing to local small businesses. This EDA RLF project is being matched with $400,000 in local funds.

SCADC has an existing $2 million RLF program to provide gap financing to start-up and expanding businesses in Bullock, Butler, Crenshaw, Lowndes, Macon, and Pike Counties, but is not available to Montgomery County. The primary goal of the program is to stimulate the economy through the creation of local jobs. The RLF targets small to medium-sized businesses, which are financially sound but are unable to secure adequate financing for start-up or expansion projects.

With the addition of the EDA RLF fund, SCADC will be able to serve Montgomery County as well. These loans provide access to capital as gap financing that enables small businesses to grow and lead to new employment opportunities with competitive wages and benefits. Each RLF Recipient must develop and maintain an RLF plan to demonstrate how the fund fits specific economic development goals and how it will adequately administer the RLF throughout its lifecycle.

Further, SCADC hopes to target small businesses that are located in one of Montgomery County's 12 Opportunity Zones. The addition of the EDA RLF enables SCADC to effectively serve the entire SCAEDD with gap financing as needed.
